Garland, Texas,
Feb. 23, 1964.

Mr. William F. Alexander,
Assistant District Attorney, Dallas, Texas.

Dear Mr. Alexander:

It is very significant that both the jurors for Jack Ruby's trial are College graduates, and both are Baptists.
~~It is~~ largely through higher education that the people of this modern age have been brainwashed by singles psychiatry. People who have higher education have done more good than has higher education. Now with 12% of the population in college and higher education, even though I have an extraordinarily good education myself, I can hear an old negro woman of Dallas for saying, "Educated folks think they've got the world in their hands, but they ain't got naten". There is a possibility that College graduates, in general, are not $\frac{1}{2}$ as happy as that old negro woman is.

College graduates, in general, have been prejudiced for psychiatry more so than have people who have never gone to College. Therefore, 3 of the jury should be composed of persons who have never gone to College. It is easier to teach the unlearned the truth than to unlearn the learned. Solomon said, "A little knowledge is a dangerous thing." The smattering knowledge which 80 40 percent of College graduates have of psychology and psychiatry is a dangerous thing, especially at a Reformation!

What is the great significance of the fact that both of the jurors, so far, are Baptists? Well, the Baptists are famous for teaching the doctrine that Jesus came to save doctrine that Jesus came, not to save us from our sins, but to save us in our sins, and ~~inspite of our~~ ^{regardless of} our sins. Regardless of whether we continue to have "a multitude of sins" or not (to use a Bible term). And only such kind of Church men could give ^{Attorney} Belli pleasing answers to the questions, "What do you think about the unconverted Jews, psychiatry, and a man who runs a strip-tease joint?" The second Baptist juror's remarks, "Rusby's strip-tease ^{entertainment} ~~business~~ is his own business" is a good example of what I have said about the Baptists. It is obvious that ~~reputable work~~ business is every decent person's business, either negatively or positively, whether a man goes to Hell and takes others with him is every Christian's business as well as

The fact that Baptists, in general, ~~take this attitude toward~~ have this philosophy about sin is verified by the following facts:
 (1) 90% of the Baptists are always saying, "You are saved 100% - by the Grace of God, and not at all by good works, nor by Righteousness." All the Righteousness of every man is as filthy rags. The Christ's giving this life upon the Cross for us that all the sting out of our sins, even if we continue in our sins. ^{They are}

 (2) ^{all trying to justify this philosophy} ~~always misinterpreting Paul's statement,~~ "All men have sinned and come short of the Glory of God"; and Paul's statement, "By Grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourself, but it is a gift of God." But they ignore the statements in which Jesus said that if a person loved Him, he would keep all His Commandments, which means that the sinner will cease to sin. Again Jesus said, "Do and sin no more, lest a worse thing happens to you." ⁽⁴⁾ Trying to justify this philosophy about sin, 80% of the Baptists ~~or~~ try to make a distinguished distinction between sins of Commission and sins of omission, when the two kinds of sins are ~~logically~~ correlative, inseparable. Many Baptist preachers have said, "You might keep all the Ten Commandments easily enough, but there are 100 sins of omission."

which no one ever overcomes." (5) ~~The~~
 (5) A famous Baptist Evangelist ~~said~~, recently said, "The person who claims he is already sanctified, in the sense of ~~that~~ living a sinless life, has the sins of pride and boastfulness and countless numbers of other sins."

Whereas the Baptists may commit fewer sins than do ^{many} ~~other~~ ^{other} ~~denominations~~ which teach Christian perfection, there is hope only for those who believe that we must ~~overcome, cease from, our sins~~ overcome, turn away from, our sins, and do so in due time!

~~I am not saying that the Baptists~~
~~are any ^{more sanctified} ~~more~~ than any other larger~~ ~~denominations~~
 Church

~~The Baptists may be as righteous~~ ~~as a man were being tried for~~ ~~having~~ on the charge that he does not believe in the divinity of Christ and the

in the Virgin Birth of Jesus Christ, then it would be alright for all the jurors to be Baptists, since the Baptists believe in the Creation story in Genesis and in the Virgin Birth of Jesus Christ.
~~Another great significance to it~~

and in the virgin birth of Jesus Christ.
Another great significance to the fact that the Baptists do not mean Christian doctrine is a gainst attack. The Baptists in general are justly secularists and justly secularists are justly Baptists.
The Baptists themselves are justly kind of people who would give pleasing answers to Bell's questions about the non-Engelical Jews, psychiatry and a strip-tease business.

the Baptists almost played the leading part in the Supreme Court decision regarding Religion and public schools, which is a decision ⁱⁿ favor of secularism.

~~that~~ The Baptists, ^{in general,} say that a Jew doesn't have to accept Jesus Christ, in order to have basic freedom and liberty or any other basic value of in government circles or in other secular fields, which philosophy is wicked secularism.

~~But~~ The Baptists give a secularistic interpretation of the 13th Chapter.

The Book of Romans ^{10 times} more so than does any other denomination. ~~Here the Baptists~~ ~~interpret Paul's statement, "Policemen~~ are ministers of God", to mean that they are ministers of God in every thing they do as policemen. This is ungodly secularism. Paul meant here that policemen are ministers of God when they enforce Commandments of God.
~~It is not as if any man~~ ~~enforces~~ ~~Commandments of God, yet is justified as~~ ~~a minister of God only by reason of the~~ ~~forces coming to a God given though~~
~~the might of other Commandments~~
~~carried out. He said that he is a minister~~ ~~of God (through) of other men.~~ ~~And only through Religion and to deny this is~~ ~~ungodly secularism.~~ through Religion, and to deny this is Baptist secularism.

All of such lusty secularism on the part of Baptists, is ^{one thing which} ~~in that~~ cause.
 Balle to accept only Baptists as jurors, thus far.

Nearly all the things I have said in this letter about the Baptists' lusty secularism I have also said to the Editor of "The Baptist Standard" in

A few Baptists, however, are not secularists at all. For example, such Baptists as Billy Graham and, perhaps, Dr. W. A. Criswell, quote Jesus' statement "It is the Spirit that quickeneth, the flesh profiteth nothing," and Paul's statement, "We Christians live not after the flesh," as well as to give the right interpretation to Paul's statement, "Lawmen are ministers of God."

Sincerely yours,
Rev. Cecil Greenham
